

Make plans to see a little of Oklahoma before Supreme Assembly begins:

Saturday Only

Ree Drummond, a city gal-turned rancher's wife who creates down home cooking on the TV Cooking show- Pioneer Woman. We are going to leave early and visit The Pioneer Woman Mercantile. It is a destination restaurant, bakery and store in Pawhuska, Oklahoma! "The Merc" has gorgeous goods, comfort foods, fresh-made pastries, delicious coffee, and plenty of fun to dish out. Plan on a great breakfast and lunch!

Other Daytime Trips on Saturday or Sunday to:

The Oklahoma Aquarium is one of the best aquariums in the country. You can have fun observing jellyfish, lionfish, and sea turtles. Oklahoma Aquarium's Shark Adventure has the world's greatest exhibit of bull sharks.

Tulsa Air and Space Museum, you can find all about the fantastic feats of aviators and astronauts.

Philbrook Museum of Art offers a full menu of fun and compelling experiences for all ages, from seeing masterpieces of the Italian Renaissance to walking through the recently named "the most beautiful place in Oklahoma", the 25-acre Philbrook Gardens provide a setting like no other. A little piece of Tuscany in Tulsa.

Saturday Evening

Oklahoma is not known for much Amish settlement. But the state does have a small but long-lived presence and we will share a Homestyle Dinner within the Amish Community.

After Dinner, a group will be going to the Hard Rock Hotel and Casino!

Sunday Evening

Oklahoma has been home to 67 American Indian tribes and we will celebrate our unique Native American heritage. After Dinner, you will become awed by our amazingly detailed native regalia and be swept away by Oklahoma's own Masonic Indian Degree Team.

Monday Morning

The Order of the Rainbow for Girls was founded in McAlester, Oklahoma on April 6, 1922 by Rev. W. Mark Sexson. In 2022, we will visit and tour the International Temple then picnic on the return trip to be back in time to get dressed for the Opening Session!

Oklahoma looks forward to hosting these fun events for you.

Admission and Transportation prices will be posted soon....
